Dear Parent/Carer

As the Year 11 mocks are approaching, it is more important than ever that students feel confident going into exams by employing the revision strategy that works best for them. While students have been directed to the English Resource page via the student intranet, the English Department are also making available exemplary English Literature revision guides making it easier for students to recall and retrieve information accurately.

The bundle currently comprises of: A Christmas Carol, Macbeth, and An Inspector Calls and can be purchased via your sQuid account at the reduced price of £12.15.

These guides are handwritten and illustrated as full colour 28-page mind maps, proven to be one of the most effective strategies for recall and revision, written specifically for the requirements of the specification set out by our AQA exam board.
